

ENERGIA COLLECTION

Its hand-planed surface is a distinctive feature. The hand-distressing imparts a timeless, lived-in look.

These processes undoubtedly increase resistance to impacts, making it extremely difficult to damage.

It is possible to choose cosmetic or contrasting dark fillings.

ENERGIA is exclusively available in the Unica selection, meaning the planks are not selected to represent the true essence of wood.

Also available in Herringbone 90°, 60°, 45° and mosaic patterns.

Craftsmanship highlights the natural wood grain, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

With a wide range of shades and finishes, the ENERGIA collection offers many furnishing solutions. Each parquet floor is unique and distinctive, boasting different grains and shades that enhance your home.

The energy of actions,
imprinted in wood.
